Newlyn School Parents Survey Spring Term 2020

Yes/no because:

Yes, it's an inclusive environment and good for music and sport
 It's a friendly, diverse school with a focus not just on academic results.
 As a parent, I have been delighted with the school.
 Pastoral care is important and all children are made to feel special and unique.
 The staff are friendly and helpful.
 Teachers are very friendly and it's a safe school.
 My children have enjoyed this school.
 The pupils are lovely and the staff are really supportive towards parents and children.
 Great school!
 Lovely, friendly school!
 It's a good little school.
 We have always recommended the school because all our children have been very happy here.
 It's a very friendly school and children are encouraged, (but not forced), to work hard.
 They are very friendly and have made my daughter feel welcome.
 It is a friendly environment and I feel that my child is succeeding in all areas because the teachers offer great support.
 It has a lovely family feel and my child's learning has really come on.
 Because it is such a good school with amazing teachers and gorgeous children!
 It is a lovely small, friendly school.
 Teachers are good.
 Newlyn lets each child be themselves.
 Because of how my child is treated and how parents are kept in the loop. Parents are encouraged to take an active role within the school.
 Friendly staff that make you feel welcome.
